

Interstate Long Distance Service

Issued May 24, 2007

Effective May 25, 2007

A. Description

Interstate Long Distance Service is offered as an enhancement to Residential and Business Local Exchange Services described in the Company's Tariffs or Price Lists on file with the appropriate state commissions.

B. Terms and Conditions

1. To subscribe to Long Distance Service, customers must:

a. For integrated or packaged offers:

- Choose the Company (or a Company affiliate) as their Primary Carrier for all of the following:
 - Local Exchange Carrier,
 - in-state toll Carrier, and
 - interstate Long Distance Carrier.

b. For non-integrated offers:

- Choose the Company (or a Company affiliate) as their Primary Carrier for all of the following:
 - Local Exchange Carrier, and
 - IntraLATA toll Carrier.

c. For both offers:

- Enroll in this plan by doing one of the following:
 - Complete and return a written subscription form to the Company.
 - Call a designated 800 number to subscribe.
 - Subscribe during a marketing contact with the Company.

2. Long Distance Service includes the following types of services:

- Direct dialed station state-to-state calls that are:
 - made from the customer's home (for residential service), or business (for business service),
 - billed to the customer's main telephone account , and
 - made without using an operator or an automated call processing system.
- State-to-state calls include calls originating from the United States mainland and terminating in the United States mainland, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, U. S. Virgin Islands, Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI), Guam, and American Samoa.
- All other calls are rated at standard rates unless the customer is enrolled in another Company plan or promotion that includes these other types of calls.

Effective February 10, 2005

B. Terms and Conditions (Cont'd)

3. Customers will continue to receive the benefits of this service until one of the following events occurs:

- The Company is notified that the Customer has changed their Local Exchange Carrier, their In-State Toll Carrier, or their Long Distance Carrier to a carrier other than the Company. Discontinuance will be effective as of the date the customer changed any one carrier selection.
- Customer notifies the Company in writing or verbally that they want to discontinue enrollment in the service.
- Customer's main residential or business telephone account is subject to disconnection in compliance with state telephone utility regulations.

4. This plan may not be combined with any other plans or offers listed below.

- Cent Per Minute Plans
- Volume Discount Plans
- Services No Longer Offered To New Customers
- Special Offers

5. Billing for this service is based on the following factors:

- For residential customers, each call is recorded in whole minutes, with partial minutes rounded up to the next whole minute.
- For business customers, the initial period is 30 seconds with additional increments measured in units of 1 second. Charges resulting in fractions of a cent are rounded to the nearest whole cent.
- Eligible usage from all lines will be billed as if the multiline customer was a single line account.
- If a call originates in one rate period, but concludes in another rate period, the call will be rated based on the minutes of use associated with each rate period. If a minute is split between two rate periods, the rate period applicable at the start of the minute applies to that entire minute.
- Local, State and/or Federal taxes may apply. The Company reserves the right to pass on taxes or fees imposed on the Company by any taxing authority. The Company may also pass on surcharges imposed by other Carriers based on the customers usage.
